Poetical.

The Language of the Eyes.

To find some universal tongue
That all can understand
Has long been wished by old and young
In almost every land,
They never seemed to have confessed
What wondrous power lies
In that mute speech, by all possessed,
The language of the Eyes.

Why cannot people be content
With this dumb voice alone?
Perhaps because it says what's meant,
And all that's meant is shown;
So still use artificial speech,
Which hides and mystifies,
For that which truth and nature teach
The language of the Eyes.

How much the better should we be,
If fewer things were said,
If words spun out less easily
In conversation's thread?
How many questions might we spare,
How many vain replies,
Would we but practice everywhere
The language of the Eyes.

But ah! I fear too oft we feel
Shut up in hollow pride;
And what the eye would sure reveal
The world intends to hide.
We cannot trust our eyes to speak
Truth only in their looks,
And falsehood never dares to seek
The language of the Eyes.

We are not yet so good, alas!
As that we all can say,
Look through those windows as through glass,
And read our heart alway;
We yet must suffer speech to fill
The world with sound and lies;
But there will be one true thing still—
The language of the Eyes.

DR. CARPENTER,
136 MULBERRY STREET,
NEWARK, N. J.
Is now treating successfully
Consumption, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, with his
COMPOUND MEDICATED INHALATIONS, CONCENTRATED FOOD, AND LIQUID SYRUP.
During the past ten years Dr. Carpenter has treated and cured thousands of cases of the above named diseases, and has now in his possession 30 certificates of cures from every part of the country. The Inhalation is breathed directly into the lungs, soothing and healing over all inflamed surfaces, entering into the blood, it imparts vitality as it permeates to every part of the system. The sensation is not unpleasant and the first inhalation often gives very decid 1 relief, particularly when there is much difficulty of breathing. Under the influence of my remedies, the cough soon grows easier, the night sweats cease, the hectic flush vanishes, and with improving digestion the patient rapidly gains strength, and health is again within his grasp.
The Concentrated Food rapidly builds up the most debilitated patient, presenting to the stomach food all ready to be assimilated and made into good, rich healthy blood.
The Cough Syrup is to be taken at night to alleviate the cough and enable the patient to obtain sleep. Full directions accompany each box of my remedies, which consist of
One Inhaler; One Bottle o Alterative Inhalant: One Bottle of Soothing Febrifuge Inhalant: One Bottle of Anti Hemorrhagic Inhalant: One Bottle Concentrated Food: One Bottle to Cough Syrup.

THE BEST, CHEAPEST,
AND
MOST DURABLE PAINTS
now in use are the Montour Slate Paints.
They cover one-third more surface, last longer and cost less than White Lead, the place of which they are very generally taking where economy, durability and hardness are desired.
Hear what our Practical Painters say:
It gives me great pleasure to recommend your Slate Paints—as supplying a need we have long felt, and overcoming a great difficulty, which has long been acknowledged by all practical Painters, namely the oxidation of White Lead, by the atmosphere, causing it to crumble or chalk off.
I am satisfied they will paint one-third more surface and in a better manner than any other pigment I have ever used. GEO. C. GOULD.
Kingston, June 25, 1872.

MARRIED IN A SNOW STORM.

TRANSLATED FROM THE RUSSIAN OF ALEXANDER PUSHKIN.

About the year 1811, memorable in Russian history, there lived upon his estate of Nemaradorf, a rich landed proprietor, Gabrilovitch by name, noted for his affability and hospitality. His house was always open to his friends and neighbors, who used to congregate there every evening; the older ones to enjoy a game of cards with the host and his wife Petrowna, the younger ones in in the hope of winning the favor of Marie, a beautiful girl of seventeen, the only daughter and heiress of Gabrilovitch.

Marie read French novels, which naturally rendered her very sentimental and romantic. Under these circumstances love was not long in coming. The object of her affection was a Russian cadet, with scarcely a penny in his pocket, who resided in the neighborhood, and was then at home on leave of absence. As a matter of course he returned her love with equal ardor. Marie's parents had strictly prohibited her from thinking of such a union, and they treated the lover, wherever they met him, with just as much friendliness as they would have shown to an ex-collector of taxes. The amorous pair meantime carried on a correspondence, and met clandestinely beneath the shade of the pine grove, or behind the old chapel. As will readily be supposed, they here vowed eternal fidelity to each other, complained of the severity of fate, and devised beautiful plans for the futuro. After some time they naturally came to think that, should their parents persist in opposing the union, it might in the end be consummated secretly, and without their consent. The young gentleman was the first to propose this, and the young lady soon saw the expediency of it.

The approach of winter put an end to these stolen interviews; but their letters increased in frequency and warmth. In each of them Vladimir Nikolovitch conjured his beloved to leave the parental roof, and consent to a clandestine marriage. "We will disappear for a short while," he wrote, "come back, and cast ourselves at the feet of our parents, who touched by such constancy, will exclaim, 'come to our arms, dear children!'" Marie was long irresolute; at length it was agreed, however, that she should not appear at supper on a day appointed, but should retire to her room under the pretext of indisposition. Her maid had been let into the secret. Both were to escape by a back door, in front of which they would find a sleigh ready to convey them a distance of five wersts to the chapel of Jadrino, where Vladimir and the priest would await them.

Having made her preparations, and written a long apologetical letter to her parents, Marie retired betimes to her room. She had been complaining all day of a headache, and this was certainly no mere pretext, for the nervous excitement had in truth indisposed her. Her father and mother nursed her tenderly, asking her again and again:—"How do you feel now, Marie? Are you no better?" This loving solitude cut the girl to the heart, and with the approach of evening her excitement increased. At supper she ate nothing, but rose betimes and bid her parents goodnight. The latter kissed and blessed her, as was their wont, while Marie could scarcely suppress her sobs. Having reached her room, she threw herself into a chair and wept aloud. Her maid finally succeeded in comforting and cheering her up.

Later in the evening a snow storm arose. The wind howled about the house, causing the windows to rattle.—The inmates had hardly gone to rest when the young girl, wrapping herself in her clothes and furs, and followed by the servant with a portmanteau, left the parental roof. A sleigh, drawn by four horses, received them, and away they went at a furious speed.

Vladimir had also been active throughout the day. In the morning he had called upon the minister at Jadrino to arrange for the ceremony, and then he went to look up the required witnesses. The BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, Sept. 13, 1872.

Beware of Frauds!

THE following vigorous circular has been issued by the chairman of the Democratic State Committee and demands the attention of all honest citizens.

Democratic State Committee Rooms,
Philadelphia, Sept. 4, 1872.

Much care and industry has been taken to impress the voters of the State with the belief that an unusual and excessive majority will be given against the Democratic and Liberal Republican State Ticket, at the October election, in the City of Philadelphia. This boast is based upon contemplated frauds, made possible under the infamous and partizan Registry Law. The objects of these statements are to encourage the Radicals of the State, and to arouse a revival from their present depressed and hopeless condition, and secure what they now lack, energy and enthusiasm, during the canvass.

Our friends in this and other States need have no apprehension as to Philadelphia. It is true, schemes of fraud are being arranged, and will be attempted on the day of election, but they will fail of execution. Vigilance has already been, and will continue to be exercised to expose and prevent their consummation.

The result in Philadelphia, with the aid of thousands of high minded Republicans, will be a surprise to our friends and to our opponents. I am without fear in this respect.

One plan of fraud commenced I will mention, with the view of exposure and overthrow. It has come to my knowledge, and is susceptible of proof, that large numbers of colored men—generally young—have been brought into the State from the neighborhoods of Harrisonburg, Virginia, and Charlestown, West Virginia, to vote at the election in October and November. The former squad were ticketed to Harrisburg, and the latter squad to Chambersburg, in this State. Numbers, in like manner, have been located in Erie, Clarion and other counties. More are expected.

I now call upon the Democrats in every election district in the State to form "Vigilance Committees," to watch and prevent the success of these attempted cheats, and meet all kindred efforts. Under the Constitution these colored people not having been residents for one year, are debarred from the privilege of the elective franchise, and in every instance such as are unknown in the communities where they seek to vote should be fully questioned and made to prove their right to vote, before allowing the deposit of their ballot. I call upon the Democrats for vigorous organizations, and I invoke special vigilance in the northern and western border counties of the Commonwealth.

Victory in October is certain. I make this declaration with full appreciation of its import, and the weight which should attach to such a statement, when emenating from one in whom high confidence has been placed. I state it from conviction, and it is made after careful review and full knowledge of the condition and tendency of the public mind throughout the State.

The contest is simple. It is an issue between capacity and incapacity, and between honesty and corruption, in the future administration of the State.

The people will make overwhelming choice in favor of future good government, with a majority beyond the reach of all ballot-box polluters.

SAMUEL J. RANDALL,
Chairman.

The Trial of Dr. Schoeppe.

The case of Dr. Paul Schoeppe of Carlisle, tried and found guilty in 1869 of the murder of Marie Steinecke, will probably rank as one of the most famous on the criminal list in this country. He was convicted mainly on the testimony of two "experts," Dr. Conrad and Prof Aiken of the Baltimore Infirmary, who testified as to the presence of prussic acid in the stomach of the deceased, after a chemical examination, and to her probable death by poison.—On this evidence Dr. Schoeppe was condemned to be hung. His counsel, however, succeeded in obtaining a reprieve from Gov. Geary two days before the time fixed for the execution. He has lain in prison awaiting a second trial until a fortnight since. His trial which has just concluded, resulted in his acquittal and the Judge remarked after receiving the verdict of the jury, that "he believed it was God's providence which alone had saved the Court and former jury from committing a great wrong." A comment so remarkable, and coming from so responsible a source is worthy of more than a passing notice. It is a grave matter, indeed, if an innocent man can be found guilty of a heinous crime, on the flimsiest evidence of so-called "experts," and give up his life on the speculative and careless affirmations of medical men, which time may prove utterly unworthy of serious consideration. The intervention of the Legislature saved Dr. Schoeppe's life and prevented a judicial murder, but what reparation is there for the three years which he has passed in prison, for the terror and ignominy of two trials for murder and for the loss of reputation and business which he must now endure. It is terrible to think of the hanging of a man now conclusively proved to be free from guilt, but it is sickening to contemplate the wreck of life and prospects which this wretched business has produced.

HENRY CLEWS, the New York banker was a British subject until the 8th of May, 1865, when he was naturalized as a citizen of the United States. He might have been naturalized five years sooner, but the draft prevented! Clews is now an active politician and a fervent American patriot in the Grant interest.

The Result in Maine.

The returns of the election held in Maine on Monday last, seem to show a majority of about 14,000 for the Grant Republicans. The administration journals are jubilant at the result and claim gains. Parts is incorrect. At the election of 1871 they had, it is true, a majority of 10,767, but in that year the total vote polled was but 105,863, whereas this year the vote is over 125,000. Obviously the only fair comparison is that of the last Presidential year, when a full vote was polled. In 1868 the Radical majority was 19,316, which as compared with the vote of the present year, shows a loss to the Administration party of over 5000. This percentage of gain would secure to us in November the states of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Connecticut, California and Alabama.—Maine has given us no cause for discouragement, but on the contrary holds out promise of future victory in other states. The states of Vermont and Maine are perhaps the least likely of all others to be affected by the reform movement. The official patronage in Maine, especially, is very large; in the Kittery Navy Yard and the many light-houses and custom houses along its seaboard, and every available means has been used by Grant's followers to secure success. Large amounts of money have been supplied and assessed on all post-office and other officials, the Postmaster General having been personally in the state to see the programme fully carried out. If no other State does worse for us than Maine—Greeley will be elected.

A Ring Lie Nailed.

THE EXPENSES OF THE GRAY-M'CLURE CONTEST.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS.—Sir: In answer to the inquiry of one of your correspondents relative to the expenses of the M'Clure-Gray election contest I would say that the expense of that investigation was less than that of any other similar contest within my recollection, considering the vast amount of labor performed.

The Watt-Diamond committee subpœnaed 546 witnesses and examined less than 200. The expenses of that committee, as approved by the senate and paid, amounted to $20,234.73.

The M'Clure Gray committee subpœnaed over five thousand witnesses and examined nearly two thousand, and its expenses, as footed up in the ring journals, amount to $26,066.

In making up the expenses of the M'Clure-Gray committee the ring editors embrace the senatorial salaries of both Colonel Gray and myself, and an item of over $1,700 for printing paid to J. B. Lippincott & Co. The Watt-Diamond printing was done by the state printer, paid in his bill, and does not appear in the expenses of that contest; and as both Watt and Diamond were paid senatorial salaries, those items should appear in the expenses of that contest to make the comparison just.

I repeat, that in no previous election contest was so much done at so little cost as in the M'Clure Gray case.

A. K. M'CLURE.
PHILADELPHIA, August 24, 1872.

A WORD or two to those gentlemen who are coming to Pennsylvania to speak for the Republican party. World Senator Wilson and General Hawley and others like them advocate the election to the highest offices of their States, of men who were confessedly incompetent and who had been proven guilty of the grossest malfeasance in office? Senator Wilson is an honest man, and Gen. Hawley has, year after year, had to fight the imported repeaters and ruffians of Tammany. Will these two men lend themselves and their great influence to the corruptionists of Pennsylvania, and aid in the disgrace of the Republican party and the State? We tell them plainly, that if they come here and advocate the election of Hartranft and Allen, they will put themselves in the place of the apologists of Tammany, and injure irreparably the cause of President Grant. It is humiliating enough to see some of our own good men, under a mistaken sense of duty, give their aid to the Treasury Ring, without having our candidate for Vice President and "the Gentleman in American politics" contribute to the perpetuation of corruption in the second State of the American Union.—Press.

If Mr. A. E. Borie, the President's Secretary of the Navy, who once was an active merchant in Philadelphia, or Mr. William Welsh, the President's Indian missionary, who is now a merchant of the highest standing, were to ascertain that their cashier and bookkeeper had for years been engaged in mysterious stock speculations with a disreputable broker, their accounts kept in initials or fictitious names, and all the while the secrets of the counting-house used for private and personal ends, we can easily imagine what would be the result. We are very sure the delinquent bookkeeper would not be promoted to be a partner in the firm. Yet this is exactly what the "Cashier" and "Bookkeeper" of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been doing for the last three years.

It is ciphered out by The Philadelphia Age that it costs the Government $200 per diem to furnish clerks to do the writing for the Campaign Central Committee and to compose ready-made editorials for the country press. The fact simply stated is that the country is paying the expenses of the Grant and Wilson campaign everywhere. We are told with a good deal of swelling arrogance that the business men are all on the Grant side, which is very far indeed from being true; but if the Grant party is so wonderfully rich, we think it should pay its own expenses, and not saddle them upon the United States Treasury. There is nothing in the Constitution which requires us to re-elect the Doctor, though Boutwell seems to think so.

The Difference.

Yerkes misapplied the public funds: so did Hartranft.

Yerkes was tried and convicted for misapplying the public funds.

Hartranft was not tried for misapplying the public funds.

Yerkes is now in the penitentiary for misapplying the public funds.

Hartranft was nominated for governor by the Cameron ring because he had misapplied the public funds.

The Cameron ring now call Yerkes a jail bird.

The Cameron ring now laud Hartranft to the skies as a paragon of honesty. That's the difference.

THE N. Y. Tribune in speaking of Pennsylvania's candidate for Governor says:

The independent newspapers and public men in Pennsylvania are now engaged in an earnest and hopeful struggle against a Ring not less corrupt, not less shameless than that which we put under our feet last year. Yet there is one assertion frequently made by the Administration papers in that State, which if it were true would prove how much less hopeful is the prospect there than with us. They say that Hartranft will receive the full Republican vote of the State. It is difficult to conceive that the sense of shame should have been so driven out of the hearts of good citizens by the power of party discipline. Last year in New York the indignation at the frauds of Tweed and his associates was so universal that in the election there was but one question, and that was between honesty and theft. Thousands of Democrats voted against their own ticket because they imagined it tainted with fraud, and the State, with a large Democratic majority, fell into the hands of the Republicans simply because Tweed and Connolly and the rest had committed their robberies in the name of Democrats. Yet Pennsylvanians complacently tell us that there is no prospect of any such revolt of Republican conscience in their State.

There was never a clearer issue between right and wrong, between honesty and dishonesty. It is patent to every voter in Pennsylvania who can read that Hartranft is a man saturated in fraud and illegalities. By sworn affidavits, by letters, lithographed and published, in his own handwriting, by extracts placed in evidence from the books of his brokers, it is proved that he corruptly used the public funds for stock speculations while Auditor-General; that he made use of secret official information to deal in stocks which were rail'd or depressed by his official acts. These are even'ts of yesterday. The money thus gained is in his pocket—part of it, doubtless, employed in this canvass. His partner and associate, being more careless or less influential than himself, is now expiating in a felon's cell his spirit of irregular enterprise. Mr. Hartranft was nominated because of his bad character. He was chosen by the corrupt Ring of Harrisburg, at the head of which is Simon Cameron, not on account of any ability or influence he possessed, but simply because as Governor he would stick at nothing which his managers demanded.

Nominated against him is a candidate entirely above suspicion from every point of view. Mr. Buckalew is a man with thoroughly clean hands. He is a good lawyer, and a man of such solid and useful knowledge of public affairs that we may properly give him the much abused name of statesman. Probably not an intelligent man in Pennsylvania but thinks he would be a better Governor than Hartranft. He is supported by the entire Democratic press and by no less than twenty Republican newspapers in the State. Many of the most prominent Republican politicians refuse to vote for Hartranft, and declare the State disgraced if it elects him. When Gov. Geary was elected over Packer in 1869 he received 50.40 per centum of the votes cast to 49.60 thrown for Mr. Packer, only 4,596 majority in a total of 576,508. The merest breath of popular feeling would have carried it the other way.

To say now that when Buckalew stands for honesty, intelligence, and capacity, in its highest expression, and Hartranft is proved to mean fraud and corruption in its lowest manifestations, there are not honest and independent men enough in the State to elect the former, is the most savage attack upon the character of Pennsylvania which could possibly be made.

THE following stirring appeal, taken from the Bellefonte Watchman is equally applicable in the case of Columbia county.

Organize! Organize!

Although we have spoken week after week of the great importance to the Democracy of thorough, competent, perfect organization, we deem it our duty to again urge immediate action and earnest work in completing every detail of the borough, township and district organization.

Many Democrats, we know, are working with a will, but in this canvass all should be workers—all MUST be workers. It is not the members of the different committees alone that the party looks to for that labor that insures success, but to the masses of the party generally. To every man who pretends or claims to be a Democrat.

Much, we know, has been done, but very much remains yet to be done. It is time now that the work was being completed; time that perfect organization was effected, and a complete canvass of the different districts made.

County Committee men, have you been doing your duty? Have you your sub-committees appointed, and your townships thoroughly organized? Have you a committee in each school district, and do the members of that committee know their duties? You will be held responsible for the result in your township or borough. Remember it is no credit to any individual to accept an official position, and then fail to perform the duties pertaining to that position.

Sub-Committee men, are you doing your duty? Have you canvassed your school district thoroughly? Have you the name of every Democrat in your district on your poll-book? Have you seen that every Democrat in your district is registered? Have strangers moved into your district since the last election—are they Democrats—are they assessed? It is your duty to see that these matters are attended to. A perfect organization—complete as it should be—complete and perfect as you can make it by a little bit of work and attention, will enable you to tell the result in your township, weeks before the election, almost as correctly as the election itself will tell it.

It is only through perfect organization and determined work THAT EVERY VOTE CAN BE POLLED!

EVERY VOTE MUST BE POLLED!

In this county we have two hundred and four school districts. One vote at home in each district will reduce our majority to less than four hundred. A gain of one vote in each district will give us over seven hundred majority in the county!

Where is the district that cannot poll a full Democratic vote, and secure the vote of ONE republican for the honest BUCKALEW, and our State and county ticket, against the EVANS "ring" candidate, and the tools of CAMERON that radicalism has thrust forward as standard bearers in this campaign?

Democrats of old Centre, remember that our chance for redeeming the State from the rule and ruin and robbery of the CAMERONS and the cliquers—that our opportunities for a most glorious victory in the county—were never brighter than they are now.

We only need to do our duty—each and every one!

Campaign Notes.

Ex-Senator Jones, of Iowa, has just laid down his arms, and is out for Greeley.

Fifty Republicans of the town of East Smithfield, Bradford County, have declared for Greeley and Brown.

Judge George A. Craig, a prominent Alabama leader of the republican party, prints a strong Greeley letter.

"I never said Grant drank too much," says Wilson; but "he ought to join a temperance society."

Thomas A. Doyle, republican mayor of Providence, Rhode Island, repudiates Grant and has declared for Greeley.

Ex-State Senator Thomas Davis, of Rhode Island, a leading republican of that state, is out for Greeley.

Two hundred and five liberal republicans have signed a call for a Greeley convention in Lorain county, Ohio.

Senator Harlan's profits from printing campaign documents are put down at $1,000 per week.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says that Oliver P. Morton is fast sinking out of sight. His power is gone in Indiana.

Grant carried West Virginia in 1868 by 5,000 majority. This year the Grant men did not even nominate a state ticket.

Ex-Mayor Barstow, of Providence, Rhode Island, a republican, has declared his intention to support Greeley and Brown.

Col. Ordway, of New Hampshire, who is sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives and a politician of acknowledged sagacity, has declared for Greeley.

"Dutch pimps" and "red whiskered Dutch puppies," are two of the complimentary names given to liberal Germans by Grant office-holders. That style of literature is very lively.

James B. Curry, for twelve years chairman of the republican town committee of Yorkland, Westchester county New York, has written a letter resigning that position and declaring for Greeley.

Gideon Hollister, United States minister to Hayti under Lincoln, and author of the standard history of Connecticut, repudiates Grant and declares for Greeley.

Buckalew and Hartley are admitted by Republicans to be honest men. Hartranft and Allen are denounced by Republicans as corrupt and unworthy.

Colonel G. G. Symons, of the Wisconsin volunteers, a Grant collector in Kentucky on the ticket of 1868, and since a territorial judge in Montana, has come out for Greeley.

Colonel G. V. Swearinger, post master at Sidney, Iowa, for twenty years, and chairman of the republican county committee, has declared for Greeley.

Bishop Simpson has been claimed as a warm supporter of Grant. This is a great mistake, or, more probably, a wilful misrepresentation. Bishop Simpson has declared that he intends to vote for Greeley.

Some of the subsidized papers in the seventh district of Iowa append to the name of John A. Kasson for congress the words: "So long as he proves himself loyal to Grant." So there is still a doubt as to Kasson's loyalty to Grant.

An Administration office-holder, who has been out West on an electioneering tour, is responsible for the statement that 4,000 Kentucky negroes have been colonized in Indiana to vote for the October elections there.

Negroes, in lots of twenty, thirty, forty, and fifty, are leaving Maryland, the District of Columbia, and Virginia "to work on Simon Cameron's road in Pennsylvania."

Four Republicans members of the late Wisconsin Legislature are stumping for Greeley and Brown. The anti-Grant movement in the West is assuming more force each day.

To name five Republicans who will vote for Greeley for every Democrt who will vote for Grant, and ten Republicans who will vote for Buckalew for every Democrat who will vote for Hartranft, is our challenge to any ring organ in Pittsburg.—Post.

THE Republican Congressional Conference are in session in Bloomsburg at this writing no nomination having been made.

THE name of William Krickbaum was accidently omitted in the list of officers of the Bloomsburg Buckalew club. Mr. Krickbaum is the Treasurer of the club.

AT the meeting of conferees to choose a Republican delegate to the Constitutional Convention, which was held in Danville on Tuesday last, Henry C. Parsons of Williamsport was elected on the twenty fourth ballot.

THE peach crop is an unusually large one this year and it is stated that the supply from Delaware was so great week or so ago that prices fell to such an extent that dealers could only realize five to six cents per crate to pay for labor and teaming.

WE are pleased to see that our genial friend C. Ben Johnson of the Bethlehem Monitor has taken unto himself a wife. We wish the happy couple all imaginable happiness and few crosses through life.

SOME Democrats of this county have a slumbering idea that the Berwick Independent is, what it purports to be, an "independent" paper. It is owned and edited by Republicans and endorses their whole ticket, Hartranft included, and Democrats should act accordingly.

FEW people know, and thousands do not know, that by setting a glass fruit jar on a folded towel, thoroughly soaked in cold water, the fruit can be poured in boiling hot, with no more danger of breaking than with a tin can. Cut this out and paste it on your cupboard.

ALTHOUGH Henry C. Parsons was duly nominated on Monday last as the Republican delegate to the Constitutional Convention, the Republican still keeps Whitmoyer's name at the head of its columns for that position.

THE Republicans held a meeting at the Court House last Friday evening which was addressed by M. M. La Velle of Ashland and A. C. Smith of Harrisburg. We were not present but are informed that the Democracy caught it "hot and heavy."

ON Thursday of last week Henry Ohl was attacked by a large bull belonging to C. R. Paxton and quite seriously bruised, so much so in fact as to require him to keep his bed for several days. The animal fortunately did not succeed in tossing Mr. Ohl, or there might have been a broken limb to chronicle.

WE have spoken of the cheapness of cider in this county, sales having already been made at 1,50 per barrel, but it seems that we have not reached the lowest point in prices, for we learn that in Connecticut cider apples bring only ten cents a bushel, and the cider makers say the barrels will cost more than the cider this year.

THE Democratic Congressional Conference of this District concluded their labors on Thursday morning last by the nomination of Benneville K. Rhodes on the 95th ballot. The full report of the Conference was received too late for publication in this week's issue and will be given next week.

A meting of the Buckhorn Club was held on Wednesday night last in the School House at that place the Vice President Thos. J. Vandersliee, presiding. The house was well filled and numbers of names were added to the list of members. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Buckalew and Brockway who were heard with interest on the issues of the day.

THERE was quite a severe hail storm on Monday. In Center township the hail stones fell, to quote the language of a farmer, "as thick as your wrist." This is, perhaps, a little indefinite but certainly serves to give the idea of large hail stones. They were of sufficient size to cut off whole bunches of grapes from the vines. We have not learned the extent of the ground covered by the storm nor the damage, if any, done to the crops.

THE Republican of this week contains the most serious charge we have yet seen against Mr. Buckalew. It deliberately accuses him of being instrumental in the building of "fourteen thousand ends to a seven thousand dollar Court House." Certainly no man who could advocate or assist in the making of that number of ends to a building is fit for Governor. Nor do we think such action would be defensible if the Court House had cost twice "seven thousand dollars." The Republican must produce these ends at once and forever extinguish the hopes of Buckalew. There is an absolute and utter want of public economy in furnishing any building whatever with "fourteen thousand ends," which must prove disastrous to him.

A GREELEY, BROWN AND BUCKALEW meeting was held at Duffy's Hall in Plymouth, on Friday August, 30th. Between 800 and 1000 people were present, being the largest political meeting held there since the campaign opened. Able addresses were delivered by James Lamberton, Esq., Stanley Woodward, Esq., and Dr. H. H. Hakes, of Wilkes Barre. The officers of the meeting were —Thomas Phillips, President; Anthony Duffy, Vice-President; Thomas Nesbitt, Secretary.

A BUCKALEW club was formed at Jones' school house in Fishingcreek township on Thursday night of last week. Silas McHenry was chosen President, and Cyrus Robbins Secretary. The house was well filled and a speech of an hour's length delivered by C. B. Brockway was listened to with great attention. Our friends may depend upon Fishingcreek for a full and thorough organization, and that there will be an unprecedented majority given to the statesman who was born upon her soil and whose early life was spent within her borders.

THERE has been in this town for a few days past, a colored man named George Thomas, who is certainly a natural curiosity. He possesses the power to move his heart from one side of his body to the other, and into different places on the right side. He is also able to stop all motion of the heart for 60 seconds. He has two complete sets of ribs, one of which is movable. The medical gentlemen who have examined him state that there is no deception practiced, and that he does what he professes to do.

SOME facetious Republican whose sense of humor has overcome his devotion to party, has plastered the picture of Hartranft, the stock-jobbing candidate for Governor, on the most appropriate place we have yet seen it—a tombstone. It may be seen next door to the Post-office. This is eminently fit and proper—being at once emblematic of the political death which awaits him in October, and may also be presumed to be in memory of his destroyed reputation and ruined character as a public servant, for which, stock-gambling, bribery and George O. Evans are responsible.

ONE of the trains on the L. & B. R. R. carried a passenger the other day who evidently has not a high opinion of the liberality of the Co. The train for some reason was compelled to back, observing which the passenger aforesaid exclaim: I, with great unction, to the other occupants of the car; "This ride don't cost us a cent; first time this road ever carried any one for nothing; my eye, won't this make Sam Sloan sick when he hears of it." And here he relapsed into a series of chuckles, lasting to the end of his journey. He evidently felt as if he had made something out of the Co. on that trip.

AT a club meeting held at Cadman's Hall on Monday evening last, Col. John G. Freeze delivered an address touching briefly on the most important points in the State and National campaigns and predicting the success of Greeley and Buckalew. He was followed by Dr. Brower, editor of the Danville Independent, who in a most humorous way, and partly in rhyme, touched upon Grant and the prominent politicians of the country. His speech created much merriment. Mr. David D. Williams, of Danville, spoke of the Welshmen of his town and of the condition of the Liberal Republican club which he pronounced thriving. After the election of Mr. G. W. Sterner as an additional Secretary the club adjourned.

Clark Esquires, be and they are hereby constituted Conferees, to meet similar Conferees from the other Conventions of this Judicial District, to nominate a candidate for President Judge thereof, and they are hereby instructed to support Hon. THEREFORE, The undersigned Conferees, full concurring in the choice of our respective constituents, hereby formally pronounce their votes, by declaring HON. WILLIAM ELWELL, of Columbia county to be duly nominated as a candidate for the office of President Judge, of the 26th Judicial District, and request the Editors of the several Democratic papers of the district to publish the foregoing proceedings.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HOOK.—A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and mental soundness of intellect. Nine diseases in ten of human origin cannot exist with an unobstructed circulation of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through those natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the mind or a sewer through the sewage is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the digestive organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, coated tongue, blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters removes all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the actions of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a cathartic or a tonic, or an antibilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a carminative, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful remedy. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane within them. It gently stimulates the liver, buoys the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

Important Testimony!

The following letters are among the many we are constantly receiving from persons who have been cured by

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,
Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic,
AND
Schenck's Mandrake Pills,

Pennsgrove, Salem County, New Jersey, FEBRUARY 17, 1872.

Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, N. E. corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia.

Respected Sir—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of the many others who have been cured by the efficacy of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.

Consumption has been hereditary in my family, most of its members having died of it at early ages. My mother and three brothers died at the age of 21, one brother at 27, and my sister at 33.

I was, when about 21 years, seized with liver complaint, which rapidly developed into Pulmonary Consumption. I was compelled to relinquish my employment (that of a blacksmith).

I consulted skillful and eminent physicians, and tried many proprietary remedies, but without success, so that my friends were sure that there was no hope of my recovery, for I was reduced from 140 pounds to 101, and was not able to do anything without assistance.

By what I now look upon as a Providential interposition, I was induced to try your remedies, and place myself under your professional care, and so rapid and thorough was my recovery, that it seemed as though some superhuman power was at work, and to-day I am as well as at any time during my life. I weigh 151 pounds, and am in good health, and for some time have been regularly attending to my business, adding fate to live to a good old age.

I am thankful to you beyond expression for having placed me in a position wherein I am a benefit instead of a burden to my family.

Your Mandrake Pills are the only ones I ever use now. I think they are the best in the world.

I can refer you to hundreds of my neighbors who will verify all I have written, and any information any of my fellow citizens may desire will be freely and gladly given, upon receipt of stamp, by Yours, etc.,
JOHN C. HEWITT.

Key West, Fla., Feb. 19, 1872.

Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, N. E. cor. Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia.

Dear Sir—Please forward, per first steamer, six bottles Sea Weed Tonic and twelve bottles Pulmonic Syrup.

Your medicines are of such value that I cannot be without them in my household, and in fact no family should be without them.

I have given them a fair test, and especially so since they do not even bother the stomach.

Very respectfully yours,
W. A. WHITEHEAD.

PHILADELPHIA, March 4, 1872.

Dr. J. H. SCHENCK:

Honored Sir—I take pleasure in adding to your testimonials my testimony of the value your Pulmonic Syrup and Sea Weed Tonic has been to me. My health had become entirely broken down, and my friends and myself were seriously inclined to think I was almost beyond the reach of medicine or help.

I was, on a visit to my uncle, Mr. Charles Johnson, No. 314 Federal street, who says your medicines raised him from almost death's door after all other means had failed, and he having therefore full confidence in the virtue of your remedies, strongly recommended me to try them. I did so, and in one week from the time I commenced taking them my friends thought I was a very great change for the better, so that I could eat my meals without any difficulty or pain. I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude for the early relief your invaluable medicines produced upon me, and I deem it but my act of gratitude to give you the acknowledgement of my unsolicited son.

Yours respectfully,
RACHEL M. JACOBS,
No. 36 West Thirty-third street, New York.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SEA WEED TONIC,
and MANDRAKE PILLS,

These are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption. Dr. Schenck has been in constant practice over thirty years combatting lung disease, and knows his medicines, if properly taken, will cure Consumption. His Mandrake Pills cleanse the liver and stomach; his Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food, stimulates the coating of the stomach, and makes it digest. His Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter, and nature throws it off without any exertion.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea Weed Tonic, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 per full dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

A WORD TO PEOPLE'S OFFICERS.—When a million of fifty millions accepts and endorses a medicine as certain and safe that it has been used in his family for twelve years, you may be sure it has merit. Such is the case with Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The use of all and in any combination of the three medicines can do no harm. It would be children and adult of sound and impaired constitution, who does not require some of these medicines to restore the lungs, liver and stomach to healthy action. Dr. Schenck, of Philadelphia, has been engaged in the practice of medicine for more than thirty years, and has probably restored to health more persons given up by their friends as incurable than any other physician in the country. His office is at the corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, where he may be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter. See his advertisement in another column.

CASTORIA.—A substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups, or any thing to operate when all other remedies fail. You may confidently rely upon the Castoria in Skinner's Acts, Constipation, Flatulency, Sour Stomach, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep. Castoria assimilates neither Mineral, Morphine, Opium nor Alcohol, but is purely vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless in any condition of the system, and produces natural sleep. It is the mother's friend. Castoria destroys worms and relieves Teething troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency, and by regulating the stomach and bowels, gives healthy and natural action. In short Castoria is the best remedy for children and adults. Fac-simile wrapper. Dose small. Sold by druggists. Ask for Skinner's Castoria and do not be induced to buy anything else. Agricultural.

HOW TO FEED COWS IN THE FALL.—The Buffalo Live Stock Journal says corn and oats mixed half and half, ground fine and fed in the form of a slop, three or four quarts to each cow per day, will cause a flow of rich milk and pay the whole expense in the extra condition of the cow. Corn meal alone is not the best milk-producing food, as it contains too much starch or carbonaceous matter, and is thus better for fattening. Would not condemn corn meal, but advise its use where it is more easily obtained, yet if the best result is expected, it should be mixed with cut hay, corn stalks or other coarse food. We believe that feeding corn meal alone and dry to cows has often produce garget and many stomach diseases. We see reported in the Practical Farmer an experiment by Benj. Sharpless, in feeding wheat bran to cows in July while on good pastures, to ascertain whether the increase in milk made it pay. Cow No. 1 had been giving milk two hundred days, on six cents worth of bran gained five and a half pounds, worth eight cents; profit, two cents per day. Cow No. 2 had lately come in and on six cents worth of feed gained seven and a half pounds, worth ten and seven-eighths cents. When the bran was doubled No. 1 being sofar from calving did not pay. No. 2 showed a profit of two and a half cents per day; but it was evident that so much food was not profitable in addition to good pasture. It will readily be seen that if six cents worth of bran could be fed at a profit with good pasture in July, it must pay liberally to feed on short pasture in the fall.

HOW TO FIT COLLARS TO HORSE'S SHOULDERS.—It is very important to have a collar fit nicely and snugly to the shoulders of the horse. It enables him to work with a great deal more ease, and to apply a great deal more strength. It prevents galling and wounding, as the friction is avoided.—Collars are so made, as to throw the chief force on the lower part of the shoulder. The horse can apply but little strength on the upper part, and for this reason breast chains are coming greatly into vogue—as the strength is exerted on the lower part of the shoulders. But we started out to make a new collar fit the shoulders of the horse. The collar should be purchased of the proper size; just before putting it on the first time, immerse it in water, letting it remain about a minute, and immediately put it on the horse, be careful to have the hames so adjusted at the top and bottom as to fit the shoulder, and then put the horse to work. The collar, by being wet, will adapt itself to the shoulder, and should dry on the horse. When taken off it should be left in the same shape it occupied on the horse, and ever after you will have a snug fitting collar and no wounds.—Valley Farmer.

GROWTH OF MANE AND TAIL.—I give the following recipe, which I have personally proved to be efficient in restoring a healthy growth of hair on the tails and manes of horses. Corrosive sublimate (bichloride), oxymuriate of mercury, each four grains in one ounce of distilled water. Wash the parts where the hair is thin with warm water and soap, then rub dry with a linen cloth, and immediately after rub in some of the above liniment. If the hair has been rubbed off by the animal's own endeavors to allay cutaneous irritation, then dress with the following ointment: One ounce of fine flour sulphur, one ounce of pulverized saltpetre, made into a soft ointment with fresh rendered hog's lard; rub in at night and wash in the morning with warm water and soap; repeat three or four times, If the hair is scant from natural debility of the capillary organs, then simply use cold water applied with a soft sponge; avoid all combing or brushing, and clean the mane and tale, as the Arabs do, with a coarse flannel rubber..—Middy Morgan.

FEEDING FOR EGGS.—Hens can not produce eggs unless their feed contains the elements of which the egg is composed. The kind of feed that is offered to hens must be determined by the object to be attained in feeding them.—Hens intended for the market should be fed that kind of grain which is known to contain a large percentage of the fatty or oily substances. But hens kept as layers should be fed on that kind of grain which contains a large share of the albuminous or egg-producing elements. In addition to the essential quantity of albumen required in the organism of the fowl the laying hen requires an extra amount for ovation—the white of the hen's eggs being about 12 per cent. of albumen—and this must be furnished in her food.—By referring to a chemical analysis of the different cereals it will be seen that corn contains the greatest amount of fatty substances, while wheat contains a larger amount of albumen than any other cereal. To fatten hens, therefore, feed corn. To procure eggs feed wheat. Meat once a day in winter will prove beneficial to laying hens. I allow my hens to have free access to troughs always well filled with wheat screenings from the mill. If allowed to choose their own time for feeding, hens will eat often and but little at a time—but never too much. Chickens should be furnished with plenty of lime-stone gravel. Some say pure water is essential to laying hens; I prefer to give them milk, as that fluid not only serves to moisten their food, but also contributes albumen, which goes to the formation of the egg.—Working Farmer.

THE CLOCK.—When the clock stops, do not take it to the repair shop till you have tried as follows: Take off the pointers and the face; take off the pendulum and its wire. Remove the rachet from the "tick" wheel, and the clock will run down with great velocity.—Let it go; the increased speed wears away the gum and dust from the pinions—the clock cleans itself. If you have any sperm oil, put the least bit on the axles. Put the machinery together and nine times in ten it will run just as well as if it had been taken to the shop. In fact, this is the way that most shopmen clean clocks. If instead of a pendium the clock has a watch escapement, this latter can be taken out in an instant, without taking the works apart, and the result is the same. It takes about twenty minutes to so clean a brass clock, and saves a dollar.

Young Folks.

[CONCLUDED.]

Christine turned, and saw, floating down the valley, a cloud of bright-winged spirits, whose faces were more radiant than words can express.

They were singing, as they came, a glorious anthem of praise to Him who made all stars; and the child's heart thrilled with more than earthly joy, as their voices, rolling on in joyous rapture, caught up the voices of the winds, the waters, the birds, and flowers, and even the trees bent low their branches before the great waves of harmony.

Softly, sweetly, as it began, it died away; and as the vast company of Melodies parted like a cloud of mist blown asunder by the winds, Christine saw revealed the face of Music, herself, so beautiful, so heavenly, that she felt she would love her forever. The little maiden's love must have shone in her eyes, for the Queen smiled, and drawing her, trembling, into her arms said:

"Dost thou love me little maiden,
Soaring in thy dreams to me?
Gentle heart, so heavy laden,
I will sooth and cherish thee.

"Rich the gift with which I crown thee:
Gift of song, so heavenly sweet,
Rapturous throngs shall gather round thee,
Casting garlands at thy feet.

"And thy earthly song and glory,
Shall like incense, sweet, arise,
Till the angels, bending o'er thee,
Bear thee to these happy skies,

Christine wept for joy as she heard the words of the Queen; but just as grateful thanks were trembling on her lips, the Dream caught her up saying, "Morning is here!" and the next that Christine knew, they were floating away in the cloud-boat, which was already flushing rosy with morning light.

"O, I wish you would stay with me always, beautiful Dream," said Christine, as they came in sight of earth.

"Your days will be more beautiful than any dream, Christine." Then in a last embrace, the Dream vanished from her sight, and Christine found herself upon her own little bed, in her own little attic room. But floating far away on the sky was a silvery, boat-shaped cloud, faintly flushed with morning's red; and Christine smiled as she saw it.

"I am sure it will all come true," she said, as she told her mother of the dream afterwards.

Again Christine and Franz wandered up and down the hot and dusty streets of the great city, singing the same old ballads. But there was a ripple of waters, a chant of breezes, a carol of birds, in Christine's voice that day; old and young, rich and poor gathered round, and listened with breathless delight.—Even Franz stood dumb with wonder, as her voice soared up, clear and beautiful, with some glad carol.

Ah! many a penny, and many a shining piece dropped into their hands, and gladdened their hearts that day.

And now Christine's dream has all come true. The glass beads she wore on her neck, have been changed for pearls; the pennies for broad pieces of gold; and the humble cottage for a palace, and the world listens with rapture to her wonderful voice.

Is it strange that she should remember her beautiful dream whenever she sees the Evening Star?

THE STRAY MULE.—At a meeting in a frontier Western settlement several present were stoutly opposed to the organization of a Sunday school. Not being able to agree, the meeting was breaking up, when the chairman said he had a very important notice to read Quiet was soon restored to hear this rather novel "religious notice."

"Strayed—A large black mule. He had on a halter when he left, and is branded on the left hip with the letter S. Any one returning said mule will be liberally rewarded."

The keen Sunday-School Union missionary quickly announced that he also had a very important notice to give out.

"Strayed — a number of boys from their homes, near this place, this Sunday morning. They had guns and fishing poles on their shoulders when they left. They are branded, by a holy God, as Sabbath breakers. Any one returning said boys, and placing them in a Sunday-school, will be liberally rewarded at the day of judgment."

The tact of that missionary carried the vote in favor of a Sunday-school, and those stray boys were duly "returned" to it.

A FABLE.—A fox and a duck having quarreled about the ownership of a frog, agreed to refer the dispute to a lion. After hearing a great deal of argument, the lion opened his mouth to speak. "I am very well aware," interrupted the duck, "what your decision is. It is that by your own showing the frog belongs to neither of us, and you will eat him yourself. But please remember that lions do not like frogs," "To me," exclaimed the fox, "it is perfectly clear that you will give the frog to the duck, and the duck to me, and take me yourself. Allow me to state certain objections to"—"I was about to remark," said the lion, "that while you were disputing, the cause of contention had hopped away. Perhaps you can procure another frog."

The Bee's Wisdom.

Said a little wandering maiden
To a bee with honey laden,
"Bee, at all the flowers you work,
Yet in some does poison lurk."

"That I know, my little maiden,"
Said the bee with honey laden;
"But the poison I forsake,
And the honey only take."

"Cunning bee with honey laden,
That is right," replied the maiden;
"So will I from all I meet,
Only draw the good and sweet."

THE original manuscripts of the Declaration of Independence and of Washington's commission, now in the U. S. Patent office, at Washington, D. C., are said to be rapidly fading out, so that in a few years only the naked parchments will remain. Already nearly all the signatures attached to the Declaration of Independence are entirely effaced. Surprise has been expressed that no effort has been made by the U. S. Government to save these documents, as it is understood that the British Museum is constantly restoring old manuscripts to their original condition.

AN editor says his ancestors have been in the habit of living a hundred years. His opponent responds by saying "that was before the introduction of capital punishment."

This instrument is especially designed for the perfect application of

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

It is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried high up and perfectly applied to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which no catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. The want of success in treating Catarrh heretofore has arisen largely from the impossibility of applying remedies to these cavities and chambers by any of the ordinary methods. This obstacle in the way of effecting cures is entirely overcome by the invention of the Douche. In using this instrument, the Fluid is carried by its own weight (or insufflated, forcing or pumping being required,) up one nostril in a full gently flowing stream to the highest portion of the nasal passages, passes into and thoroughly cleanses all the tubes and chambers connected therewith, and flows out of the opposite nostril. Its use is pleasant and so simple that a child can understand it. Full and explicit directions accompany each instrument. When used with this instrument, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications.

Symptoms of Catarrh. Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucus, purulent, offensive, &c. In others a dryness, dry, watery, weak or inflamed eyes, stopping up or obstruction of nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, &c. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, and accompanied with the constitutional treatment which is recommended in the pamphlet that wraps each bottle of the Remedy, is a perfect specific for this loathsome disease, and the proprietor offers, in good faith, $500 reward for a case he can not cure. The Remedy is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. The Catarrh Remedy is sold at 50 cents. Douche at 50 cents. by all Druggists, or either will be mailed by proprietor on receipt of 60 cents.

THE QUEEN

THE AMERICAN

BUTTON-HOLE OVERSEAMING

AND COMPLETE SEWING MACHINE.

The first and only BUTTON-HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE combined that has made its advent into this or any other country.

☞The following reasons are given why this is the best.

Family Machine to Purchase.

1. Because it will do everything that any machine can do, sewing from the finest to the coarsest material, hemming, felling, cording, braiding, binding, gathering and sewing on, at the same time ruffling, quilting, etc., better than any other machine.

2. Because it can work a beautiful button-hole, making as fine a pearl as by the hand.

3. Because it will embroider over the edge, making a neat and beautiful border on any garment.

4. Because it will work a beautiful quilt hole.

5. Because it can do over-hand seaming, by which sheets, pillow cases and the like are sewed over and over.

6. Because the best mechanics pronounce it the best finished and made on the best principle of any machine manufactured.—It has no springs to break; nothing to get out of order.

7. Because it is two machines in one. A BUTTON-HOLE WORKING and SEWING MACHINE combined.

☞No other Machine can accomplish the kind of sewing stated in Nos. 2, 3, 5, and 6.

Parties using a family sewing machine want a WHOLE MACHINE, one with all the improvements.

It is to last a LIFETIME, and therefore one is wanted that will do the most work, and do it the best; and this machine can do several kinds of sewing not done on ANY SEWING MACHINE besides doing every kind that all others can do.

The American or Plain Sewing Machine.

(Without the button-hole parts), does all that is done on the Combination except button-hole and over-seaming.
